

There is growing interest in *gospel-driven compassion
 ministries*
 in the church today.

- How can your church help the poor, the disabled, the neglected and the forgotten in your community?
- What do true gospel-driven mercy ministries look like?

These are some of the questions we hope to address in this conference.

Our Speaker

Our speaker, Eddie Exposito, pastor of Sovereign Grace Fellowship of Slidell, Louisiana, founded Homeland Missions in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. Over the years Homeland Missions has ministered to the needs of the disadvantaged and impoverished in the greater New Orleans area as well as training churches from across the United States in mercy ministries. He and his wife, Michelle, are New Orleans natives and have four daughters, Elizabeth-Kay, Carlyn, Jeanne-Marie and Ruby. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Philosophy and Pre-law from the University of New Orleans and is an avid foodie, devoted outdoorsman, writer, musician and redeemed Bohemian.
